LOUI CHEE, MANAGER

THE NEW RUSSIAN COMMANDER

GENERAL LINEVITCH

Lient. Gen. Linevitch, the new commander of the Russian land and sea forces, in the far East, is in the sixty-sixth year of his age. He was fighting in the Caucasus when he was twenty-one, took part in the Russo-Turkish war of 1877-78, and has since then taken part in all of Russia's Asiatic campaigns. Linevitch was also prominent in the relief of the Legations at Peking, succeeding Admiral Alexieff in command of the Russian troops in August, 1900, and was congratulated by Emperor Nicholas for his services in China.

For a time in 1904 Gen. Linevitch was governor general of the Amur territory, but later assumed command of the Russian forces at Vladivostok under Viceroy Alexieff, and is understood to have placed that fortress in a state to resist a long siege. Gen. Linevitch was reported to have left Vladivostok in July, last, taking with him, it is understood, part of the garrison of Vladivostok, but this may have been incorrect or else he returned to Vladivostok later, for it was not until September that Gen. Linevitch was ordered to Harbin, and in November he was appointed to command the First Army under the plan for the reorganization of the Manchurian army.

He assumed command of the First army November 14, 1904, and soon made himself beloved of the rank and file on account of his constant solicitude for the welfare of the men. Whenever the general found a soldier without warm clothing he insisted upon an investigation on the spot.

Gen. Linevitch had a narrow escape from death early in December. He approached within a thousand yards of a Japanese battery when a shell dropped near him, exploded and killed a soldier.

At the battle of Mukden Gen. Linevitch was reported March 5 as stubbornly holding his position and as having repulsed thirteen consecutive attacks of the Japanese, but in spite of this he is said to have escaped with slight losses, and March 13, he entered the Russian lines south of Tie pass with his regiments in perfect order, his music playing, the men singing, and scarcely a straggler lost on the long and difficult march. The following day the Russian troops, apparently those commanded by Gen. Linevitch, repulsed a Japanese attack at Fan river, the Japanese leaving a thousand men killed before the Russian position.

TO ENJOIN A BIG CONTRACT

UNSUCCESSFUL BIDDER THREATENS TO BRING SUIT AGAINST THE WAILUKU SUGAR CO.

WAILUKU, April 7.—Wilson & Duggan, whose bid for the digging of six or seven tunnels for the Wailuku Sugar Co. was about $20,000 below the next lowest bidder, have retained J. L. Coke in a suit to be instituted against the plantation for awarding the contract to Carl Waldeyer, who, as is claimed by them, did not put in a bid at that time. Action has not been commenced, but it is certain that Mr. Coke has been retained to bring suit. It will be remembered that at the time bids were called for, there were quite a number of them ranging from $80,000 to $105,000, the higher figures being by Japanese contractors. Wilson & Duggan's figure was for slightly over $60,000, and it is stated that Mr. Wilson spent considerable time in going over the ground and obtaining estimates. Recently it was learned that Mr. Waldeyer had commenced operations on the tunnel, hence the above suit.

LAND REGISTRATION.

P. C. Jones has filed two petitions in the Court of Land Registration for titles. One is for five lots on King street, Kapalama, containing 20,670 square feet. The other is for 112 acres of land at Kalihi, adjoining the U. S. Military reservation, Kahauiki. G. N. Wilcox has been decreed a title by Judge Weaver for Queen street property valued at $5000, subject to government commutation tax as of 1895.

To read an inscription on a silver coin which by much wear has become obliterated, heat a poker red hot and place the coin upon it. The inscription will plainly appear of a greenish hue, but will disappear as the coin cools. This method was formerly practiced at the mint to test coins when silver was called in.

THE TRIAL OF JOHN RICHARDSON

SECOND JURY TO HEAR THE EVIDENCE RETURNS A VERDICT OF GUILTY.

WAILUKU, April 7.—Judge Kepoikoi again convened his court on Wednesday morning to take up the remaining cases on the criminal calendar. He issued an order extending the term of court for twelve days longer. The special venire which had been subpoenaed to appear before his honor, was exhausted in the examination of jurors in the now famous Richardson embezzlement case before Judge Lindsay. A second call was issued returnable on Thursday morning, at which time the list of jurors for the case was completed, and trial commenced. This is the same case in which a mistrial was entered last week on account of a hung jury. The evidence taken yesterday and today was practically the same as in the previous trial, J. L. Coke and W. H. Heen prosecuting and D. H. Case and J. M. Vivas defending. Taking of evidence was completed at four o'clock this afternoon. The jury was sent to their room for deliberation shortly after five, and at 6:30 brought in a verdict of guilty as charged, and recommending the prisoner to the leniency of the court. The defence excepted to the verdict of the jury, and gave notice of a motion for a new trial.

In this criminal action against John Richardson, he charged with having embezzled the sum of $1049.66, the property of one John Tallant of Lahaina. Richardson is a prominent attorney in this community, and has been closely identified with political interests on this island. He was elected District Attorney for the County of Maui in 1903.

WAILUKU IMPROVEMENTS.

WAILUKU, April 7.—Work has been commenced on the building for the Hygeia Soda Works at Kahului. A neat building is being erected near the Kahului store warehouse, on the road leading to Paunohi. It is understood that the new company will install an ice and soda plant within the near future. They will also operate a steam laundry, and it is even asserted by an officer of the company that they will supply electric lights to the public.

For the Invalid

Half the cure for any long illness is light. Put a sick person in a sun-shiny room. Give her sunlight as long as there is a ray of it and then when twilight comes, turn on the electric lights.

Twilight hours are bad for ill people. They think sad things in a gray light, and sad things are bad for the health, the circulation flags when the mind is depressed.

Have the electric button placed where the sick hand can easily reach it, and the patient will prove to you how much she craves the light.

Electric light is valuable in a sick room because it is hygienic, cheerful, easy to procure, without odor or deposit; because it does not selfishly exact its portion of oxygen, and because it is at hand any moment at a second's notice.

Electric light in a house is invested capital, the interest from which is amiability, health and a popular fireside.
